Board Of Trade Plans Name Change of C of C

A good turnout of local businessmen attended the October supper meeting of the Vulcan District Board of Trade in the Hotel Dining Room to deal with current business of the board.

With an eye to greater influence from government representations and a closer alignment with other such business groups in towns and cities, the local Board has taken necessary steps to have its name changed to Vulcan District Chamber of Commerce.

In response to a letter of welcome from the Board of Trade to Klassen Construction, which is in process of relocating their plant at the Vulcan Airport, a reply has been received with enquiries as to the possible labor force available here and the kind of housing which might be found. This matter is to be investigated by the Board and results will be sent to the company.

Shoppers' Day bills have been compiled and amount to $379.76. A collection of participating businessmen has been made to cover these costs.

Students' Council Set For 1962-'63

The makeup of the 1962 Vulcan Students' Union was given last Friday at the Graduation Exercises held at the school auditorium. Naming the school executive was its president, Doug Graham. They are Dan McIlven, vice-president; Jean Hess, secretary; Marilyn Green, treasurer. In charge of this year's Year Book will be Clarence Graff and Shirley Markert.

Mary Salvage who was in charge of the 1961-62 year book was given an award for her work in this connection.

Shower Honors October Bride

A community shower honoring Miss Jean Ann Matlock, bride-elect of this month, was held in the United Church basement Friday, Sept. 28.

The decorations, in white and green, carried out the musical theme of the "Bridal Chorus." The tables were set in the same color scheme with white tablecloths and green candles.

Jean Ann, on behalf of the hostesses was presented with a beautiful bouquet of white carnations tied with a huge white bow.

The Hagg sisters, accompanied by their mother, sang a novelty song, "When We Marry" and for an encore, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." A skit, "The Meaning Of Marriage," by Mrs. Bill Murray and Mrs. Russel Hegland of Champion added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Miss Donna McKay after modeling a dainty pink apron, the pockets of which were filled with cards of advice and recipes from the assembled guests, read the messages to the bride-to-be.

While the guests sang a presentation song, Mrs. Brian Erickson gave Jean Ann a beautifully wrapped gift on a green and white decorated tray. The guest book was passed around for everyone to sign.

Lunch which consisted of fancy green and white salads and angel food cake was then served to everyone.

Jean Ann graciously thanked everyone for the many beautiful and useful gifts and expressed her appreciation to the hostesses for making it all possible.

A little skidding goes a long way — towards disaster.

GARAGE SERVICE

Open on Sunday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. week-days, and 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturday, this coming week.

Wheat Centre Motors

The Vulcan curling rink has been a hive of activity for the past week as work commenced on the moving of the artificial ice plant to the three sheets on the south end of the rink. This area was previously used for wheat storage, and with the removal of the wheat the executive feels that immediate use of the newer building is essential.

A lot of work will be necessary for the next few weeks in preparation for the coming curling season and President Vernal Haga hopes that any curlers with a little time to spare will show up at the rink and help share the load of work that must be done.

The executive for the coming season includes: President, V. Haga; vice-president, Mel Jordan; secretary-treasurer, Glen Graham; Committee: Russel Graham, Frank Wythe, Stan Kehr, John Wolfe, Dan Watson.

Also planned for this year's curling is a new method of forming the men's rinks. All prospective curlers will be listed so that every man wishing to curl will be on a rink. A committee will choose sufficient skips for the curlers and rinks will then be chosen by the skips with choice governed by a draw. All rinks should then be reasonably well balanced which should make for a good competitive draw.

Curlers from the country who wish to curl together to facilitate better transportation problems will be allowed to do so whether it be two, three or four persons involved. All in all this should encourage more curlers and a committee will be formed to contact everyone regarding their wishes to join the curling club for the 1962-63 season.

Leaves Estate To Charity

The will of the late Arthur Hansen, a Vulcan resident for many years before his death last August, has now been probated.

Under the terms of the will, three-quarters of the estate goes to the Alberta Children's Hospital at Calgary and the remaining one-quarter to the Providence Creche.

Mossleigh 4-H Elects Officers

The re-organization meeting of the Mossleigh 4-H Go-Getters Club was held at the home of Dora Campbell on Sept. 18.

Officers elected are as follows: President, Charlotte Koole; vice-president, Marlene Bertschy; secretary, Linda Malmberg; treasurer, Janie Randle; press reporter, Sherry Randle; social conveners, Linda Howe and Susan Switzer. Mrs. William Campbell and Mrs. Bob Bertschy are the leaders.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Switzer at 7:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting.

"Jack rabbit" starts or abnormal acceleration at any speed are extremely wasteful of gasoline. General Motors engineers point out. Fast stops waste the energy built up by the gasoline already burned in the engine.

Fourteen members of Alberta 4-H Clubs, representing all parts of the province, will visit Toronto and Ottawa during National 4-H Club Week, Nov. 10 to 15. These young people will gather with 125 4-H'ers from the other Canadian Provinces for a week of activity and discussion which will better acquaint them with Canada and their role as citizens.

Extensive Damage

Sunday E.U.B. Church Fire Does Major Damage

Fire of undetermined origin swept through the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Vulcan last Sunday, badly damaging the interior and leaving the congregation of its pastor, Rev. Heebner, without a place of worship.

Smoke was pouring from the windows and walls of the building at about 3:00 p.m., when the call was sent to the Vulcan Fire Department. Source of the fire was believed to be at the foot of the stairs near the main street entrance and before it was controlled, it had destroyed the church draperies, piano, the communion table, the pulpit and most of the pews.

The congregation had that morning celebrated the World Day of Communion and the church had been vacant since shortly after noon. The thermostat of the gas furnace had been turned down and no immediate cause could be given for the blaze.

Insurance was carried on the building and adjusters were in town Tuesday attempting to estimate damage. No decision has been made as to the course of rebuilding or repairing of the church. There had been some interest shown in building a new church with more room than that contained in the present structure.

The church was originally moved into town and remodelled and last month it celebrated its 10th anniversary with a service. Rev. Heebner is in his first year with the Vulcan E.U.B. Church, having replaced the late Rev. Wuerfel as pastor this spring.

Following a meeting of the EUB Church Board, Rev. Heebner announced a new service schedule to be followed for this Sunday. Other churches have come to the aid of the EUB offering accommodation for services, for which Rev. Heebner expressed the thanks of his congregation.

Services for this Sunday, Oct. 13 will be in the United Church basement at the following times: Sunday School, 2:00 p.m.; worship service, 3:00 p.m., and evening Evangel Hour will be at 7:30 p.m.

The two-week Spiritual Emphasis Services scheduled for Oct. 15 to the 26th, will go on with the first week at the country Philadelphia Church and the second at St. Aldhelm's Anglican Church in Vulcan.

A further temporary schedule will be released following church meeting later this week.

If you like scenery, stop to enjoy it.

Those in a position to lay a charge against violators are advised by RCMP to get the vehicle's licence plate, make of car, description of the hunters, clothing, etc., and to check the number in the party.

At Fletcher's Dairy in the Brant Ensign district relative quiet prevailed on the duck scene. Other years sleep would be over before dawn as the barrage went up from the nearby lake but the reduced duck population has had its effect.

Game officer Bert Freeman could not be contacted Tuesday for an overall picture of hunting in this area but it is reported by travellers along the Sunshine Trail that police set up road blocks and checked cars at the junction with Number 2 Highway.

Home Ec. Teacher Entertains At W.I. Meeting

The Good Deeds Women's Institute September meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Pat Dingwall and attended by 11 members and three visitors.

Preceding the business session, Mrs. Barbara Anderson, district home economist from Claresholm, entertained the ladies with a talk, accented by slides, about her year teaching at the government village of Fort Smith in the North West Territories. Mrs. Anderson displayed handicraft done by her Indian students. These were very beautiful in their originality.

Also, Mrs. Anderson, discussed the do's and don'ts of picture hanging and other wall decorations in the home. It was a most educational and enjoyable program for which everyone present sincerely thanked Mrs. Anderson.

To answer roll call a gift for a mental patient was given. Plans were made for the annual bake sale and it was decided to raffle a food hamper. Mrs. Dianna White read the C.A.C. Bulletin after which the committees reported.

Upon hearing the library report from Mrs. Eileen Wylie it was hoped that something could be done to keep this worthwhile community benefit operating.

The delicious lunch, served by Mrs. Nellie Hutton, Mrs. Agnes Campbell and the hostess, Mrs. Pat Dingwall, was enjoyed by all.

Cost About $1000 Yearly

Establish Municipal Library If Plebiscite Carries

Next Wednesday, Oct. 17, Vulcan ratepayers will be casting ballots for or against the establishment of a municipal library in Vulcan.

At the present time the Vulcan library is classed as a "community" library, supported by donations from various organizations and receiving a government grant of up to $300, which must be matched by the local library and be spent entirely on books.

Under the proposed "municipal" library setup, the Town of Vulcan would be responsible for the financing of library operations. A Municipal Library Board of seven members would be appointed by the Town, with the Mayor and not more than one other member of the town council being members of the Library Board.

Government grants would be available for the purchase of books on the basis of $1.00 grant for every $1.00 invested in the library by the Town, up to a maximum of $500 per year. An alternative government grant for operations is 35 cents per capita of the Town, providing this per-capita grant is matched by a Town appropriation of at least 50 cents per capita. If the necessary Town appropriation cannot be supplied from general funds, the Town would be authorized under the Library Act to levy a library tax of not more than two mills.

The Library Board would present to the Town Council, on or before the end of January each year, a budget showing the proposed expenditures for the year.

Town officials estimate that cost of operating the Vulcan library each year as a "municipal" library would be about $1,000 — considerably less than one mill. (One mill in Vulcan is equivalent to about $1,800). This figure is based on average costs of municipal libraries in other Alberta towns.

It is felt that the library can no longer operate as a "community" library and that the answer to the present problems of the library is the establishment of a "municipal" library. The present Library Board is suggesting the completion of the installation of necessary fixtures in the new library building in order to qualify for the government grants and also that all books and

Fish and Game Into Fall Season

With the fall harvest over and the farm load becoming easier, the call to Fish and Game activity again comes from local president Bill Holton.

The first meeting of the season is set for next Wednesday, Oct. 17, and will feature Upland Game, with committee chairman Merle Smith in charge.

Shooting for ducks, and upland game opened last Friday and while the ducks appear scarce, with a few being seen on lakes around and on the Little Bow, the pheasant population is quite good, although of such a late hatch that many young cocks are hard to distinguish. The general rule holds that if the bird can't be identified don't shoot it as it will likely be too small to be of use and it still counts on the three bird limit.

In relation to big game hunting, specifically black bears, a discrepancy has occurred in published bag limits. The Big Game Synopsis indicates a limit of only one Black or Brown Bear while an Order-in-Council establishes the ruling that a two bear bag limit will be allowed in 1962. The latter two-bear limit takes precedence and will be observed.

With a membership of 160 the local Fish & Game organization is tied with Athabasca in 13th place among 51 associations listed in the September newsletter of the Alberta Fish & Game Association.

A feature of Fish & Game meetings are the wild life films which are shown. One of next Wednesday's pair of color films is a new production on fishing and is highly recommended. The meeting will be held in the Vulcan Cafe beginning sharp at 8:00 p.m.

Mr. Patridge has been secretary of the AUNA for more than 12 years. He was also elected second vice-president of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association at that organization's annual convention in Winnipeg recently.

Former Resident Mrs. R. Simington Dies At Calgary

The many friends here of Mrs. R. W. (Vera Eliza "Dot") Simington of Calgary were saddened to learn last week of her death at her home on Oct. 3, following a lengthy illness.

Born at Virden, Man., March 5, 1900, she moved to Armstrong, B.C. in 1904. In 1918 she came to Vulcan with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. James Leverington, who resided here for several years.

On January 3, 1922, she married Robert W. Simington and with him made her home here until 1952 when the couple moved to Calgary.

Mrs. Simington was a member of the Vulcan United Church and was Past Matron of Ferrodale Chapter O.E.S. Lodge. She was also a chapter member and past president of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, Vulcan branch, and was very active several years ago in the Scout and Cub work.

Surviving to mourn her besides her husband are two sons, Bob of Fort Nelson, B.C., and Bill of Calgary; three grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. F. L. Simington of Calgary.

Funeral services were held from the Little Chapel on the Corner in Calgary at 11:00 o'clock on Friday, with the Rev. S. J. Wylie officiating.

Gravestone services were held that afternoon at the Vulcan cemetery, attended by members of O.E.S. and many friends. Burial was made in the family plot.

Pallbearers were Jim and Stan Kettleton, Jim Clark, Gerald Simington, Vic Redpath and Jack Wenger.

Many memories of the early west are recalled at the sight of this New Oxley Ranch, located west of Stavely. It was one of the original ranches which developed from the backing of English capital and, Stavely Hill, after whose name the town of Stavely originated, was an Englishman who promoted this ranch and John Craig was its first manager. The Willow Creek Historical Society met at the ranch this summer and were further acquainted with the historical background of the New Oxley by Dr. Cornish of Claresholm, who is well versed in western pioneer life.

Vote "Yes" On Library By-Law

It is unthinkable that any town the size of Vulcan would be without a public library, and yet that is what could happen here if the library bylaw fails to gain a two-thirds "yes" majority on Oct. 17.

Cost to the Town is estimated at about $1,000 a year, or slightly more than one-half mill and this does not seem an excessive cost for a service that provides such valuable benefits to both town and country residents — young and old.

Cost of equipping the new library building, buying necessary books and keeping the library open even a minimum number of hours cannot be met under the present "community" library setup and the logical step to take is the small but adequate expansion to the status of a "municipal" library.

Although voting on the election of town councillors is the right of any Canadian citizen or British subject, over the age of 21, who has resided in Vulcan since Nov. 1, of last year, voting on the library bylaw can only be done by those who are property owners in the town. We wholeheartedly endorse the library bylaw and urge ratepayers to turn out on Oct. 17, and vote "Yes."

Hunters Cautioned Against Fire

Ben Rosnau, of Bruderheim, Alberta, President of the Alberta Fish and Game Association, has issued an appeal to all hunters to be careful with fire this fall while out hunting. Mr. Rosnau, in a statement issued to the press says:

"On behalf of the Alberta Fish and Game Association, I appeal to hunters to do all in their power to eliminate the danger of fire in our forests and on the prairies during the upcoming hunting season. We in Alberta were fortunate this summer in that sufficient rain fell to lower the fire hazard; however, normal fall weather will see dry periods and a resultant increased fire hazard.

Fires due to natural causes are tragic enough, but more tragic are those which are due to human carelessness. Good sportsmen handle fire with respect and I urge all hunters to do their part in preventing fires. Forests which have taken hundreds of years to grow may be destroyed in a few days as the result of a single careless act, taking with it a heavy toll in habitat, without which our fish and wildlife cannot exist."

Mr. Rosnau also cautions hunters seeking antelope in the southeastern prairie region to be careful with their campfires and while smoking. Prairie fires usually run for miles before they can be effectively stopped.

A. French of Calgary. Ronald J. Pelham officiated before the altar, on which were placed an open Bible and nine candles. The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white spray mums and gladiolas and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white nylon sheer over taffeta, appliqued with chantilly lace. The scalloped neckline was trimmed with iridescent sequins, seed pearls and lace. The gown featured a dropped waistline and lily-point sleeves. Her scalloped finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of crystal and seed pearls. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of deep pink roses and stephanotis. Her jewelry was a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the groom, and a pair of pearl ear-rings which had belonged to her late grandmother.

The bride was attended by Miss Pat Robertson of Montreal, Miss Elizabeth Newnam and Miss Helen MacKinnon, both of Edmonton. The three appeared in aqua frocks of organza over taffeta with pixie-pointed organza overskirts, matching shoes and head pieces. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of white shasta daisies tinted with aqua.

The groom was attended by his brother Jim French of Edmonton. The ushers were Randy Mitchell of Jasper and Arthur Vollendorf of Lethbridge.

Mrs. Jean Gardner was organist and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Frances White of Calgary sang "The Wedding Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hollister chose a two-piece mink brown sheath of matelasse crepe trimmed with satin. Her accessories were beige and mink brown and her corsage was of Tallman roses. Mrs. French chose a beige lace sheath with turquoise accessories. She also wore a corsage of Tallman roses. Both parents received with the bridal party in the church study.

The guest book, attended by the bride's cousin, Miss Eloise Hollister of Calgary was signed by friends and relatives from Seattle, Wash., Edmonton, Rockyford, Champion, Standard, Jasper, Bentley, Langdon, Lethbridge, Calgary and Vulcan.

The reception followed in the church dining area. The bride's table was centered with a lovely tiered wedding cake decorated with roses. Candles and roses were the only decorations on the tables.

Grace was given by Roscoe Hollister, uncle of the bride. Jim French of Edmonton acted as MC, reading telegrams from Iowa, Edmonton and other points. Doug Smith proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded.

For travelling the bride donned a copper-toned and black three-piece wool suit with brown and beige accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart rose. Mr. and Mrs. French spent their honeymoon in Montana and Yellowstone Park. The happy couple will make their home at 10963 71st Ave. Edmonton.

Tough new '63 Chevrolet Trucks

... THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN ...
TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN... TO SHOW THE WORTH
OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Nature created the world's toughest proving ground for trucks — the Baja (bah hah) California Peninsula, Mexico. It's thousand miles of tortuous trail that defies travel.

Chevrolet tackled this route with a Carryall, a ½-ton pickup with new 230 cu.-in. 6-cylinder engine, a ¾-ton pickup with new 292-cu.-in. *6-cylinder engine, a medium-duty unit with refrigerated van, a medium-duty diesel tanker and a heavy-duty tandem.

Rocks, ruts, washboard and washout racked the trucks from bumper to bumper. Sand, dust and rivers tried to swallow them. Hour after hour was spent in low gear at temperature up to 122 degrees F.

It took 17 days to go the 1,066 miles, and not one Chevrolet truck dropped out! Each day's run was finished on schedule!

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. See these tough, quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements at your Chevrolet dealer's.

*Optional at extra cost.

QUALITY TRUCKS COST LESS

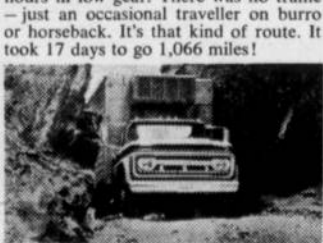

A General Motors Value

Temperatures as high as 122 degrees F. burned the land in the desert area around Dry Lake — one more ordeal any truck that goes to Baja has to shrug off.

Chevrolet's ladder-type frames withstood the severest punishment. Shown is the ¾-ton pickup with new 292-cu.-in. *6 cylinder engine.

Tight squeeze for the medium- and heavy-duty units in this gorge. Their new narrower front-ends certainly paid off. Users who operate in close quarters will like this new '63 feature.

When you came to a river, you got wet. This Baja river bottom was as rocky as the road. What a test for new '63 Chevrolet suspension systems!

Be sure to see Bonanza on the CBC-TV network each Sunday. Check your local listing for channel and time.

The above photographs show buildings of the University of Alberta, Calgary, and surrounding campus. An aerial view depicts the three present buildings (1). The utilitarian Science and Engineering Building, largest on campus,

(2) also has a basement cafeteria in a pleasing modern decor. The Physical Education Building (3), containing two large and one small gymnasiums, classroom and office space, and recreation areas, in the not too distant future will be the centre for a three-year physical education course. An architect's drawing illustrates the fine proportions of the university library (4), now under construction. The five-story building, covering a 130,000 square foot area, will be the university's first edifice of monumental significance. Ultimate plans call for the addition of two five-story wings.
